Tree of tributes to HM The Queen

Burbage Coronation Tree on Church Street became a focal point for tributes to HM Queen Elizabeth II following news of her death on September 8.

A book of condolence was opened at Millennium Hall and Council Chairman Cllr Danny Findlay wrote to King Charles III offering sympathy and support to the new monarch and the Royal Family.

He said: "On behalf of the Parish of Burbage I offer our sincerest condolences at this profoundly sad time.

"Her Majesty's unfaltering devotion to her duty has been an inspiration to the nation and indeed the world, bringing stability and hope in testing times."

- Booklets produced by the Council to mark the Queen's Platinum Jubilee remain available from the Parish Office for £1, cash only.

Legion lends support to Christmas Market

ROYAL BRITISH LEGION

The Royal British Legion Burbage branch is working with the Parish Council to co-ordinate stalls at Burbage Christmas Market on Friday November 25.

The market will be held on Windsor Street and a road closure will be in place – please visit the Council website (Community – Road Closures) for a map showing closure and diversion routes.

Stall holders will require public liability insurance and need to provide all equipment, power, lighting etc. A £20 deposit is payable by October 31 to secure a pitch on a first-come-first served basis.

To book a stall or for any inquiries please contact the RBL on 07765 660358 or email Burbage.Secretary@rbl.community

Farmers' Market The next Farmers' Market is due to be held on Saturday November 5 on Burbage Methodist Church car park and will have a Guy Fawkes theme.
